awayed back and forth with a rhythmical motion. On the corners of adjacent roofs sat squadrons of cats, hunched in attitudes of awe, with one paw poised over one ear and their tails thrashing and quivering expressively.

At least such is the description furnished by Reginald McDuff, one of the earliest lacteal deliveries out in Manhattanville Hollow.

"I never see anything like them cats," said McDuff in ungrammatical excitement, "and the way that coo-pia whayed to and from was alarming." Of course, I had to go on at we rout an' gradually worked me way down to the green gas lamp.

"It was about half a block away that I began to hear the noise which was animatin' them cats. It was a low base-o-o-o-o-o-o-o hum at first, and then would change into a sound like a horse gargling its throat, winding up with a ripping, splitting sound, as if a hardware store was telling downstairs or a bunch of mounted cops was galloping over a loose wooden road.

Cats Gave Him the Clue.

"I look up an' I look down for the source of that hell-of-a-sound, but it didn't finally dawn on me until I cast my eye back on those curiose cats and saw whether their whiskers were colored.

"Sure, 'tis the coo-pia," says I to myself, so I beats 'em to the solution.

"There's a lad in a good shield an' his shirt sleeves that ain't an' asleep across the blotter, so I says to him, 'What's the answer?'

"After he drinks a quart of milk I presents to him he says:

Women's $6.50 Jackets Special at $3.75

A Smart Prince Chap Model.

WE sold 100 of these coats last Tuesday at $3.95 to the first 100 women who looked at them, and we regret that we had to say "Sorry, but there aren't any more," to many women who came late in the day. To-morrow we repeat the offer, and to conform with our unbreakable "Tuesday Bargain" price rule we make the price a little lower.

Another 100 stylish and serviceable coats. The style is one of the best shown for this spring (as illustrated): made in excellent quality covert, black broadcloth and cheviot; 26 inches long; lined with good quality silk-finished serge. All sizes, and a wonderful bargain at

The House of Easter Preparation---
WANAMAKER'S Eighth to Tenth Street

Broadway, Fourth Ave. ue.

PERHAPS more valuable and helpful, than at any other season of the year, is the service, this week, at WANAMAKER'S.

Never have we been better equipped to meet the broad public demands upon us than we are to-day. The Wanamaker stocks of Women's Apparel have been a feature of delighted exclamation on the part of thousands of women during the past two weeks. The Millinery show-rooms are brilliant with exclusive American and Parisian masterpieces, original and daring in their beauty.

Our Men's Apparel Exhibition last week was the talk of the entire trade. Wanamaker initiative and aggressiveness have given this business a standing that appeals to the best-dressed men of New York City, as well as to all men who wish to secure the best and finest that the money will buy. From hosiery to that, from shoes to overcoat, there is no place like WANAMAKER'S for the supplying. At your service.

Pre-Easter Concerts

In the Auditorium for the week before Easter we have arranged an unusual treat for all lovers of music in New York and vicinity. Beginning today and continuing until Friday, there will be sung every afternoon, beginning at 2.

Excerpts from Rossini's Classic "Stabat Mater"

by the following well-known oratorio soloists:

Miss VIRGINIA WILSON, Soprano
Miss MILDRED TRAVERS, Contralto
Mr. JOHN YOUNG, Tenor
Mr. FREDERICK WHEELER, Bass

There will also be the usual Organ and Angelus Recital every morning, beginning at 10 o'clock. All are invited.

Tailored Suits At $27.50

In Charming Light Striped Fabrics

SOME of the prettiest tailored suitings that the season has produced are used in making these very stylish Spring suits. All are in light stripes, in delicate shades. Collars and cuffs of black satin, with gilt braid, give a note of character.

The picture shows the slightly cut away single-breasted jacket, semi-fitting, the short sleeves and the patch pockets. The coat is taffeta-lined and the skirt is side-plaited.

The tailoring throughout is superb—in fact, the suits should regularly sell for $10 more than their special price, $27.50.

Third floor, Old Building.

Black Braid Jackets at $6.50 to $25

Regularly $12 to $40

If you want first choice come early, for we have only two score of these dressy, smart Fassementerie jackets, and at the present small price they will be snapped up promptly. They are samples, only one of a kind, made in various lengths, some with the popular Fillet combinations—just the thing to wear with a variety of costumes. They are now offered at less than the importer's prices. At $6.50 to $25, regularly $12 to $40.

Second floor, Old Building.

Children's Panama Hats, $4

ABOUT a hundred soft, fine Panama Hats for children, with large brims and crowns, that can be effectively trimmed with ribbons or scarfs, and which many women will find suitable for their own Summer hats are ready tomorrow at $4 each. The hats are really fine enough to sell, as intended, at $6 to $10, but little irregularities in the weave did not pass the strictest inspection. Hence the sheer drop in the price—a saving of $2 to $3 on a hat. Plenty of time to trim one for Easter.

The charming JACK HORNER Hats are here in great variety. Too—the prettiest Children's Hats of the season. Trimmed with ribbons and streamers, $1.50, $2, $3, $4—of felt, cloth, straw and Panama.

Main floor, New Building.

Tuesday Offerings—Not on Sale Today

Wonderful Showing of Women's Lingerie Dresses

These dainty, tremendously popular little dresses have been going out by the hundred—as fast as we could get them from the makers. We have secured from two of our best manufacturers enough for a rousing day's selling tomorrow—over 1,500 of these dresses, all fresh and new, and copied from high-priced models, to sell at the very remarkable prices of

$3.25, $3.50, $3.75, $5, $7.25, $7.50 and $10

There are all sorts of pretty designs, including Princess and Over-waist styles, in figured lawns, dotted Swiss muslin, linen, batiste, and other materials, trimmed with embroidery, lace insertion, edgings and medallions, in white, pink, blue and a few in lavender. It is the best choosing that has ever been offered at these prices among such charming dresses for Summer wear.

$1 Flowered Messaline Silks, 58c Yard

Some of the prettiest silks you have ever seen for young girls' and children's party dresses—and many a woman will find a way to use them in her own costume. They are 23-inch Messaline silks, with pompadour and Dresden floral patterns scattered over them, in small, medium and large designs. A variety of delightful colorings on white grounds. Regular $1 quality, at 58c a yard.

8c to 15c Laces at 5c & 8c Yd.

If you are deep in plans for summer gowns and underwear you should see our assortment of cotton, silk, and lace. In it you will find pretty patterns and small prices.

We offer also a fine selection of German and French Valenciennes laces in sets, at 25c to 55c a dozen, regularly $1 to $2.

See Our Five-Dollar Models Before Buying an Easter Hat

Our customers are enthusiastic about these pretty models and keep our designers busy supplying them. They have just trimmed about three hundred and fifty new attractive hats, which offer a wide range of styles and colors.

For $5 you may have a smart Spring hat, with all the smart and style, all the color, beauty and grace of high-priced models, for three dollars. These are copies of expensive hats in less expensive materials. For the price you will find no other place where you can get two hats and still have for one of them one of these models are offered at $3.50 each.

Girls' $2.50 Washable Dresses, $1.75

Pretty dresses with many merits besides the decided Price-economics. Girls' tastes were considered in designing and trimming these attractive high-neck and empire dresses, and they will surely like them. In colors, styles and lovely shades—all fast colors. At $1.75, instead of $2.50—their regular value. Sizes for 6 to 14 years.

Girls' $4.50 and $5 Reefers, $3.50

An assemblage, 150 strong, of natty little Coats for girls from 8 to 14 years old, all at material concessions in price. These pretty coats are made of various materials in effective Spring style. At $3.50 each, regularly $4.50 and $5.
